

Fall 2005

For Thanksgiving 2005, me and my family will be traveling from Chicago to my hometown.

I am scheduled to speak at Oneida, Tennessee's First Baptist Church on Sunday evening, November 27 at 6pm.

During that week, Kristin, Dakota, Christian and I will also be spending time visiting family and friends. I may also do some consulting work and see my twin brother, Teddy, and his family in Nashville.

After about a week, my family and I will drive through Kentucky and make a stop at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky then perhaps to Lincoln Christian College and Seminary in Lincoln, Illinois to see some new friends I have recently made.

After Thanksgiving break, the rest of the year's calendar is as follows:

December 1-2: Kansas City, MO where I teach two Master's Degree classes in Christian Education-related subjects at Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary

December 8-9: Kansas City, MO at Midwestern Seminary

December 9-10: St. Louis, MO where I will speak at the Faculty Christmas Celebration for Tower Grove Christian School and then facilitate a Leadership Conference and Consultation with Tower Grove Baptist Church.

December 15-16: Kansas City, MO at Midwestern Seminary

Kristy, the family, and I will then stay in Chicago through Christmas, then take off December 26-January 4 for our final week of vacation for the year. That time will be spent in Kentucky, Tennessee, and Georgia with family, high school, college, and seminary friends.

God bless you~ Season's Greetings and Merry Christmas!
